

Tax Commissioner Recommends Rates For Tax Districts

The board of supervisors at the second meeting of the annual session Wednesday evening transacted considerable routine business and then adjourned to this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The opening session held Tuesday evening was a short one but from tonight until the session comes to a close the county legislators will have busy sessions in order to dispose of a vast amount of business which must be taken care of before the first of the year.

A communication was received from Deputy Commissioner Daniel R. Spratt of the State Tax Commission giving the commission's rate for the various tax districts of the county. The rates suggested by the commission for 1932 are:

The report of Commissioner Spratt was received and referred to the committee on equalization.

The committee on Form and Footing of Assessment Rolls reported that it had examined the assessment rolls of the several tax districts and that the rolls were correct. The committee, Supervisors DuBois, Myers and Cragan, submitted the table of assessments by town. The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

This report of the committee on Form and Footing of Assessment Rolls showed the following valuations in the county:

Total number of acres in county 643,237. Value of Real Property in Towns Outside of Village $25,461,277. Value of Real Property in Villages and Cities $29,355,639. Value Special Franchises in Towns Outside Villages $1,523,376. Value Special Franchises in Villages and City $1,492,071. Real and Special Franchises, total value $65,742,354. ## Snow Removal

A communication was received from James F. Loughran, county superintendent of highways, designating all of the improved state and county highways in the county as highways from which snow removal should be accomplished at the joint expense of the state and county. The list of highways submitted included all such improved roads in the county totaling 224.29 miles. Later a resolution offered by Messrs. Stanbrough, Dunsberry and Charlton to the effect that the above mentioned highways in the public interest should be freed of snow and the resolution was adopted. A certified copy will be forwarded to the state department.

A communication was received from J. Adelbert Fuller, deputy commissioner of Old Age Pension Relief suggesting the discontinuation of blind relief to George H. Countryman of Sandown for the reason that Mr. Countryman, a blind person, was now receiving relief from the Old Age Pension fund. On motion of Supervisor George of Denning the blind relief was discontinued.

A similar communication was received in connection with the blind relief of Mrs. Ella Bollin of Ellenville. On motion of Supervisor Wells of Wawarsing the blind relief was discontinued.

On motion of Supervisor Davis of Marbletown, Mrs. Catherine A. Smith of Cottekill was granted blind relief in the sum of $13 per month from November first.

On motion of Supervisor Latcher of Kingston city, Mrs. Emma Smith of 148 Broadway was granted blind relief in the sum of $25 a month from November first.

Both the above applications for relief as a needy blind person were certified in proper order and had been investigated by the state authorities, and the relief was recommended.

Several properties which were omitted from the 1931 assessment roll will be added and the tax will be collected at the 1931 tax rate with the 1932 tax. The properties to be added were:

On resolution of Supervisor George of Denning, property of the State of New York, value $180, in Denning. Over under rule.

Supervisor Edward of Esopus, property of Edward M. M. $23. Over under rule.

Supervisor Davis of Marbletown, property of Anna Hezika, value $25. Over under rule.

Supervisor Wells of Wawarsing, property of American Telephone and Telegraph Company in village of Ellenville, value $246. American Telephone and Telegraph Company outside the village of Ellenville, value $18. Over under rule.

Resolutions from the previous session were called up and adopted.

Presbyterian Men Served A Dinner

Men of Church Met Wednesday to Enjoy A Dinner Prepared and Served by Men of Church—Men's Club to be Organized and Series of Dinners Held.

That some of the men of the Roundout Presbyterian Church not only know how to serve a dinner but also to prepare one was amply proved Wednesday evening when a group of 50 men of the church met in the chapel to enjoy the fine menu that had been cooked by the men and served by the men of the church. The occasion was for the purpose of talking over the organization of a Men's Club of the church, and during the evening a committee, consisting of Fred L. Van Deusen, Henry Connelly, Clarence S. Howland and the pastor, was appointed to arrange for the next dinner in December and also to select a slate of officers for the new club. Frank D. Dewey presided as toastmaster and the speakers of the evening were the Rev. Goodrich Gates, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Frank B. Seeley, pastor of the Fair Street Reformed Church and the Rev. James N. Armstrong, Jr., pastor of the entertaining church. Other ministers who were guests of the men of the church were the Rev. E. Bond Brown of the Poughkeepsie Congregational Church, the Rev. Fred H. Deming of Trinity M. E. Church, and the Rev. W. H. Pretsch of the Spring Street Lutheran Church.

The addresses of the evening were brief and to the point. During the evening the dinner sang a number of songs under the leadership of Tom Rowland, song leader of the Sunday school of the church. The men of the church in charge of the dinner had prepared an excellent menu of sliced ham, scalloped potatoes, beans, cabbage salad, coffee, rolls and apple pie. The food was excellently cooked, the serving faultless, and the committee who cooked and served the dinner was given a rising vote of thanks. Following the serving of the dinner and the speaking of the evening a social time was enjoyed with a number of men playing the game of dart baseball, which is proving one of the most popular of the indoor games of the season. It is expected that the next meeting of the club will be held early in December.

Big Stills Seized Near Salt Point

One of the largest seizures made by Kingston prohibition investigators in some time was made Wednesday on an apparently deserted farm, on the Salt Point Road, a little over a mile from Poughkeepsie. Seizures included a 15,000 gallon copper alcohol still, with two columns, one being 24 feet high and the other 20 feet high; two 100 horsepower boilers with oil burners; fifty to sixty thousand gallons of molasses mash; 75 fifty-gallon drums of molasses; electric motors, pumps, etc. The officers found a couple of hundred gallons of alcohol, but there was evidence that a large quantity of finished product had recently been moved. The operators of the plant had made good their escape when the officers arrived and no arrests were made at the time.

About seven o'clock this morning Kingston agents also seized a 500-gallon copper whiskey still at Salt Point village, the plant being located a few hundred yards back of the post office. They seized about a thousand gallons of hard cider in vats, 13 five-gallon kegs of apple whiskey, electric motors, two boilers, pump and other equipment.

Speakership Will Furnish Battle

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—The speakership of the House of Representatives promises to be the subject of a lively intra-party contest at the outset of the new Democratic Congress.

Two candidates, Representative Rainey of Illinois, Democratic floor leader, and Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the veterans committee, already have formally been announced.

Others expected by friends officially to enter the race shortly are Representatives Byrnes of Tennessee, chairman of the appropriations committee; McDuffie of Alabama, the Democratic whip; Bankhead of Alabama, ranking Democrat on the rules committee; and O'Connor of New York, also a member of the rules group.

The speakership becomes vacant March 4 when John N. Garner of Texas, gives up the gavel to preside over the Senate as vice president. The 313 Democratic members-elect of the new House will convene behind closed doors before their first session to select their speakership nominee.

There were 28 supervisors present at the session. Supervisors Scullion and Van Wageningen were excused. Supervisor J. L. Noyes moved that the sending of the minutes be discontinued with and Supervisor Myers seconded the motion.

On motion of Supervisor Wright, the board adjourned until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Post Offices Gives Tips for Wrapping Christmas Parcels

Some valuable suggestions are given by the Post Office Department in connection with the shop and mail early campaign which is now in progress throughout the United States. During the holiday time the volume of mail increases approximately 200 per cent. It is a physical impossibility to handle this great mass of mail matter efficiently and promptly within a few days. Therefore, to assure delivery of their Christmas presents, cards and letters by Christmas day, the public should shop and mail early.

The department urges everyone to mail their gifts, greetings and letters to relatives, friends and loved ones at least a week or ten days before Christmas, according to the distance. This will not only make it certain that they are received before Christmas day, but will be a great aid to the postal service and postal employees and enable them to spend the Christmas holiday with their families.

Some Mailing Suggestions. The suggestions issued by the Post Office Department are the result of many years experience in handling the mails. Some of the matters mentioned by the department are mandatory. The suggestions include the following:

Wrapping and packing: All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and heavy twine.

Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, should be reinforced their full length by strong strips of wood tightly wrapped and tied or otherwise sufficiently wrapped to withstand transportation.

Hats: Pack in strong corrugated or fiberboard boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hatboxes must be crated. Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "Fragile".

Shoes: Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

Cut flowers: Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin, or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.

Candles: Inclose in strong outside boxes or containers. Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc.: Pack or wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and wrap and tie the carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crate suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they cannot cut through the wrapping.

Fragile Articles

Articles easily broken or crushed must be securely wrapped and crated and boxed. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, all around and between the articles and the outside container.

Glassware, fragile toys or crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.

Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material. Cigars must be in good shipping condition.

All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "Fragile".

Perishable Matter

Parcels containing perishable articles shall be marked "Perishable", and packed in suitable container, according to contents. Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Use special delivery stamps to expedite delivery.

Addresses

Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, postoffice box or rural route number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should also be written on the wrapper for use if the tag is lost, and a copy of the address should be inclosed inside the parcel.

Do not mail Christmas greeting cards in red, green or other dark colored envelopes, or in very small envelopes.

Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail. Affix the required amount of postage in the upper right corner. Full information concerning postage rates can be obtained at the postoffice, post stamp windows at the main postoffice, Uptown Station or Roundout Station.

No parcel may be more than 100 inches in length and girth combined, or exceed 70 pounds in weight.

ROOSEVELT WILL ATTEND LEADMAN INAUGURATION

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—For the first time, a president-elect is going to take part in New York's ancient Mianal custom of formally inaugurating a governor.

Three of the four presidents who have gone from New York state to the White House have been governors, but it remains for Governor Roosevelt to be the first present at the inaugural ceremony to hand over the reins of government to his successor.

Expert Flyer Commands Resolute

Commander Sewell, U. S. N. R., Former Pilot of the Akron, Will Direct Santa Claus Trip in the Zeppelin, Coming at the Kingston Airport Thanksgiving.

When Santa Claus comes to Kingston on Thanksgiving Day at the invitation of Rose & Gorman he will have as his pilot in the new Goodyear aircraft Resolute Lieut. Arthur T. Sewell, U. S. N. R., a veteran of more than 15 years' experience in flying lighter-than-air craft of all kinds.

Lieutenant Sewell, who is chief pilot in charge of the Resolute, started flying aircraft early in 1917, and was soon made an officer in the aviation corps of the navy. He acted as instructor, did patrol duty and following the war did a great amount of test flying and experimental work.

In addition to being qualified to fly small airships such as the Resolute, Lieutenant Sewell is qualified to pilot the U. S. S. Los Angeles and the U. S. S. Akron. During completion of the U. S. S. Akron last year by the Goodyear Zeppelin Corp., Lieutenant Sewell was in charge of ground handling arrangements on all the test flights made by this ship.

He will be accompanied on the flight by R. H. Hobensack, co-pilot, a former star athlete at the University of West Virginia, who has been a member of the airship operations department of Goodyear for the past four years.

Lighter-than-air craft, with which the public is becoming rapidly acquainted through flights of the Graf Zeppelin, the U. S. S. Los Angeles, the U. S. S. Akron, and smaller ships of the army and navy and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., have a great many uses in addition to being ideal means of sightseeing, according to Lieut. Arthur T. Sewell, U. S. N. R., commander of the Goodyear airship Resolute in which Santa Claus will make a flight to Kingston on Thanksgiving Day at the invitation of Rose & Gorman, Kingston's leading department store.

"Persons seeing our ship flying over New York believe that passenger flying is the chief utility of the airship," Lieutenant Sewell smiled. "That, however, is slightly erroneous, as there are a number of other uses to which they may be put."

"For instance, a ship of the general design of the Resolute is ideal for patrol and spotting work by the army and navy, and they were put to this use every day during the Great War by the Allies. Convoys of troop ships arriving on the other side out by a mine, which would escort them and warn them of submarines in the danger zone."

"It cannot be equalled for use in aerial photography. As the ship does not depend upon its speed through the air to remain aloft, the motors can be throttled down to almost nothing, and the ship remains stationary in mid-air, while the cameramen get all the pictures he wants, at a much slower film exposure than is the case in a fast moving plane."

"Another utility of ships of the Resolute type is training pilots. All pilots for huge airships such as the U. S. S. Akron and the famous Graf Zeppelin must first qualify as pilots of small ships. Operation of the smaller ships is the same in theory as the large ships, except, of course, duties on the large ships are distributed among a number of officers rather than being in charge of one man. A number of the Goodyear pilots have already completed their training as rigid airship fliers at the naval air station at Lakehurst, N. J., home of the U. S. S. Los Angeles and the U. S. S. Akron."

Lieutenant Sewell, who will be in charge of the Resolute during its flight to Kingston with Santa Claus, is a qualified naval aviator, having completed his training on the U. S. S. Los Angeles, and has also flown the U. S. S. Akron.

McKEE DENOUNCES FORCES IN CONTROL OF NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Acting Mayor Joseph V. McKee, breaking openly with Tammany Hall, has sounded a summons to a crusade against what he calls waste, extravagance and abuses in the city government.

Bursting like a shell filled with political T. N. T., the Bronx Democrat's denunciation of the forces in control of the city government was discussed excitedly throughout the city today.

Rising late last night before bankers, merchants and business men at a dinner, McKee, who has advocated a policy of sharp retrenchment, declared in a voice trembling with emotion that citizens are "sick and tired" of present conditions "and they are not going to allow those things to continue." He did not, however, mention Tammany by name.

Propose Equality

Geneva, Nov. 17 (AP)—The British foreign secretary, Mr. John Simon, proposed to the world disarmament conference today that the German demand for arms equality be satisfied by allowing the Reich to have the same kind of armaments as other nations.

Smaller In Cincinnati

Cincinnati, Nov. 17—The first case of smallpox has been diagnosed in the village in the family of Charles Thorne of Cincinnati by Dr. C. F. Meekins of Highland. The father and one child in 11 and the other boy was removed from school.

Winter Comes To Many Sections Of The United States

By the Associated Press.

The nation's weather map was as spotted today as a polka dot dress. A wintry blast that moved across the country from the west yesterday appeared to be spending itself in a final burst of fury at scattered points along the eastern seaboard and in the south.

While the Pacific northwest was welcoming succor from a stormy spell New York was awaiting a chilly onslaught.

The snow was melting on the prairies of eastern Kansas today while Washington, D. C. was faced with a prediction of "much colder" tonight.

New Orleans Shivers. And away down south in Dixie New Orleans was expecting freezing weather. Atlanta saw the mercury near 20 degrees above.

Michigan still was blanketed with snow but Oklahoma, which saw the mercury drop to 14 yesterday, was promised a let-up in the cold snap by tonight.

Though snow covered the mountains of Utah and Idaho, the temperature today had returned to normal. Northern and western Texas were shuddering in freezing and sub-freezing weather but Montana temperatures were climbing upward.

The New England States, despite heavy fog or rain in all portions, reported temperatures ranging from 16 at Northfield, Vt., to 58 at New Haven, Conn.

Snow in Indianapolis. Indianapolis was digging itself out of the heaviest snowfall it had experienced in 30 years. In the city 3.4 inches of snow fell yesterday, while in central and northern Indiana 12 inches were common in many places. In some sections rural schools were forced to close.

Kentucky, which saw its second snow of the season yesterday, today was rejoicing in a forecast of "warm," but Albany, N. Y., where a light rain fell throughout the night, was contemplating prospects of snow and colder weather.

Philadelphia boasted mild temperatures today but Richmond, Va., witnessed the rapid descent of the mercury.

Birmingham, Ala., was swept by cold winds and Nashville, Tenn., expected a maximum drop to 15 degrees.

Eastern Missouri looked for more snow but Colorado and New Mexico had a prediction of fair and warmer.

Alphas on commercial lines were kept on the ground at Buffalo and Pittsburgh yesterday.

ACCUSE BANKERS OF DOMINATING CORPORATIONS

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 17 (AP)—Bankers are accused of dominating corporations and determining labor policies. The accusation was made in a report considered today by the convention of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor.

The report, submitted by James O'Connell, departmental president, said in part:

"When bankers believe wages should be reduced, the corporations are practically compelled to agree. When corporations believe the wages should be advanced and the hours of labor reduced, the bankers' consent must be secured before the changes are made."

"The bankers' influence on questions of business and labor policy has become more and more dominant, as commerce and industry have increasingly depended upon them for credit."

SON BORN TODAY TO MR. AND MRS. E. ROOSEVELT.

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—An eight-pound son was born today to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt. The baby's father is the second son of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, and this is his fourth grandchild.

Mrs. Roosevelt, the baby's grandmother, left Albany by train at 2:25 a. m. and arrived in New York shortly before 7 o'clock to be with her daughter-in-law. After teaching school the first three days of the week, Mrs. Roosevelt had gone to Albany last night to be with the governor the rest of the week.

The baby's mother is the former Miss Betty Donner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Donner, of Villanova, Pa. Elliott Roosevelt is engaged in the advertising business in New York city.

FRENCH AND GERMANS IMPROVE RELATIONS

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Evidence of improved relationship between France and Germany was read today by American observers into Raymond Patenotre's announcement Germany, France and Great Britain are arranging an economic consortium for rehabilitating Europe.

The step was regarded as a long step from the days of 1924, when the signing by Walter Rathenau, German cabinet member, of cooperative efforts with France cost him his life at the hands of two former German naval officers, who felt his policy was an attempt to betray the Fatherland.

Paltz-Poughkeepsie Bus Compromise

Rival Lines Agree to a Joint Schedule, Making 12 Trips a Day and Arranging Closer Connection at The Transfer Point.

Albany, Nov. 16—The proceeding initiated by the Public Service Commission for the purpose of investigating the adequacy of the bus service between New Paltz and Poughkeepsie has been closed as the result of an agreement between the two bus operators which serve this territory.

Under the agreement 12 round trips daily will be operated between Poughkeepsie and New Paltz and will afford a reasonable amount of through service between these points. Service between New Paltz and Poughkeepsie has been rendered by two operators, one of which, DuBois and Elliott operate between Poughkeepsie and the town line between the towns of New Paltz and Lloyd and the other, Van Gonsle Brothers, operates from the town line to New Paltz.

DuBois and Elliott changed its schedule last summer and as a result serious inconvenience resulted to passengers who desired to make the through trip during the midday. Before the change buses were run by both operators on a hourly headway and the passengers changed from one bus to the other at the town line. When DuBois and Elliott changed their schedule six round trips were eliminated and of the remaining only four made an undelayed connection with the Van Gonsle buses. On some trips passengers had to wait from one-half to an hour and a half to make connections at the town line.

The evidence showed that public convenience does not require the operation of 16 round trips daily. What was required was a close connection at the town line to avoid the long waits. Under the agreement which has been reached between the two operators joint schedules will be published providing for twelve round trips daily which will make immediate connections at the town line. This settlement will adequately care for the needs of the communities.

Von Papen May Become Dictator

(Copyright, 1932, by The Associated Press)

Berlin, Nov. 17 (AP)—Chancellor Franz von Papen was reliably reported today to be considering a plan to remain at the helm of the German state and proclaim a dictatorship.

A usually reliable informant told the Associated Press of this turn in the critical affairs of Germany only a few hours after several large political parties had advised von Papen they would not support his government.

Von Papen appeared before his cabinet at 11 a. m. in a fighting mood, the informant said, and advised it not to resign in a body, but to leave it to him to tender his personal resignation to President von Hindenburg.

But von Papen, who has run the government under presidential decree for several months, does not intend to give up the struggle at that point.

The chancellor feels the president will ask him to continue in office until the heads of the various parties have been summoned for a personal presidential audience.

Paroled Prisoner Gave Himself Up

Oliver York on Parole From Dannemora Said He Had No Home or Place to Go—Sent to Jail for 5 Days—Eight Others Jailed for 10 Days Each.

Oliver York, 39, of Woodrich, N. Y., who is on parole from Dannemora where he had been sentenced for burglary, was picked up at Broadway and Foxhill avenue on Wednesday night by Officer Brophy on a charge of vagrancy. This morning York informed Judge Culliton in police court that he had asked the officer to take him in as he had no home or place to go. He said he was on parole.

In reply to questions by the court he said that he did not know that the sheriff held a warrant for his arrest.

Judge Culliton sentenced York to five days in jail. Seven negroes and a white man were arrested by Officers Schoonmaker and Relyea on South Prospect street on Wednesday. The officers lodged charges of vagrancy against the eight who gave their names and addresses as Samuel Henderson of Philadelphia, Odell Harrison of New York city, William Johnson of Patterson, N. J., Elijah Miller of Ripley, Ohio, Robert Cheabrough of Jacksonville, Florida, Joseph Smith of Middleburg, Kentucky, George Alexander of Barabon, Ohio, and Harold Glover of New York city. The first seven are negroes and Glover is white. All eight were given jail sentences of 10 days each in the county jail.

Three Days For Sandler

Charles Sandler, 48, of Kingston, was committed to the county jail Wednesday by Justice Shuttles of Woodstock. Sandler got three days on a charge of vagrancy.

Busy Session of County Court Had By Judge Traver

Number of Persons Fined Guilty to Charges and Received Sentences—Session Continues Today.

Judge Frederick G. Traver held a rather busy session of county court Wednesday afternoon and after the court had adjourned several minor criminal cases had been disposed of. The sentences imposed Wednesday by Judge Traver indicated that Judge Traver and District Attorney Cleon B. Murray have taken a firm stand in an attempt to discourage crime in the county. Several small sentences were imposed and at the same time in at least one other case, that of a shell-shocked war veteran, the court and district attorney showed leniency in order that the sick man might be returned to government care.

Maurice Geaney, a World War veteran, a man who enlisted a month after war was declared by the United States and who served in the 27th and 71st Regiments and was with the 105th Infantry when it broke the Hindenburg line and brought about the collapse of the war, found mercy in the court. Geaney was indicted for burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry. While at High Falls where he was residing he entered a store. He claims not to know if he did it or why he did it. He suffers from shell shock and gas. Since 1924 he has been under the care of the Veterans' Bureau and has been in various hospitals for treatment. Mr. Murray informed the court that Geaney needed further treatment.

Robert J. Howard, who appeared for Geaney, stated that his client would plead guilty to unlawful entry. This plea was accepted and Judge Traver sentenced Geaney to six months in the county jail but suspended execution of sentence on condition Geaney return to the custody of the Veterans' Bureau for treatment and hospital care. Geaney said he would return to the bureau. Judge Traver then suspended the execution of sentence beginning today and paroled Geaney to the custody of his counsel, Robert J. Howard. Mr. Howard agreed to take his client to New York and turn him over to the Veterans' Bureau. Geaney was told to keep away from Ulster county.

Negroes Sentenced

Frances Douglas, a negro, charged with maintaining a disorderly house, changed her plea of not guilty to one of guilty to the charge. She said she had been in this locality about three years. Judge Traver imposed a four months jail sentence and suggested that when the time had expired she remove herself to Georgia from whence she had come and keep out of Ulster county and Kingston.

Mary Gaud, who with William Gaud and Thomas Roberts, was indicted on several burglary charges, appeared in court. She faintly as she entered the court room and was taken out and after being revived returned with Mrs. Haines, matron at the county jail. She came near fainting again and was taken from the court room and later came back to enter a plea of guilty to one of the burglary charges. The trio was arrested by troopers following a series of burglaries near Ellenville. They had also been involved in a series of thefts in Kingston and Newburgh not long prior to that but when the articles stolen were returned they received light sentences. William A. Kewcher appeared for Mary Gaud and entered a plea of guilty to indictment 1937. Judge Traver stated that her record was bad, that she had been convicted of several minor offenses and now faced the court under several indictments. He sentenced her to

THE WAR DEBTS ::

Both Hoover and Roosevelt Oppose Cancellation;
See Key To Problem In Foreign Trade Expansion

Washington (AP).—The scheduled meeting between President Hoover and President-elect Roosevelt to consider war debts ends both in general agreement that expansion of foreign trade would help solve the problem and that the debts should not be cancelled.

As to the handling of the united demand of America's debtors that the payments due December 15 be postponed, neither party leader has publicly voiced an opinion.

The total due December 15 is $128,934,000, including interest and principal. Great Britain, owing $25,850,000 on that date, is the biggest debtor. France's payment amounts to $19,261,000. The balance is owed by Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Finland, Hungary, Italy, Lithuania and Poland. Most of these countries have the right to postpone payment on principal for two years, and Poland, Estonia and Latvia have served notice of such postponement.

20 Millions Due By 1937

The total principal sum owed is $11,568,000,000. The average interest rate is 2.135 per cent, and the total sum which the United States was to have received by 1937, the maturity of the debts, is $22,188,000,000—including both principal and interest.

One of the main objections of foreign nations to the present debt schedule is that commodity prices have fallen so far that twice as much goods must be sold now to get the money as was necessary when the schedules were made.

The debtors further hold to the United States policy that the debts

One of the major problems facing President Herbert Hoover (left) for the remainder of his term and President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt when he takes office is the war debt question. Mr. Hoover and his successor-to-be will confer on the subject. The chart shows the situation at a glance.

were to be paid according to capacity to pay. That capacity, they say, has been seriously reduced by the decline in commodity prices among other things. The debtor governments also point to the difficulty of further taxing their citizens, pointing to the objections Americans have raised to taxation in the United States, and emphasizing that European taxation is even more burdensome.

President Hoover has stated that reduction of world armament has a bearing on the question, in that it would reduce the tax burden. U. S. Senators and representatives have suggested that the debts be revised downward in proportion to armament reduction.

Aside from the political aspects of disarmament, the debtors argue that such reduction would not importantly affect the ability of nations to pay international debts. This is for two reasons: First, reduction of taxes through armament cuts depresses the incomes of those employed in any military fashion, increases unemployment and otherwise forces expenditure of at least part of the funds theoretically saved by cutting armament.

Second, even if armament were reduced and money saved, such money might not be acceptable in the United States since it would have to be converted into dollars. In the case of depreciated currencies, the cost of dollars may seem prohibitively high. In other cases, necessities for purchasing many dollars may cause the currency to depreciate.

Some American commentators, while they admit the logic of these arguments, nonetheless hold that they do not prove anything about capacity to pay.

Smith Has Plan

Were the eventual settlement of the problem to take a line toward expansion of foreign trade, some plans similar to that of Alfred E. Smith might be considered.

Smith suggested a 20-year debt holiday, during which period 25 per cent of the value purchases made by debtor nations in the United States would be credited toward reduction of their debts.

This would reduce the debts of the leading debtors from 75 to 50 per cent, and theoretically would stimulate foreign trade.

At the close of deer season many deer have been reported killed around this section of the county, although not as many as in previous years. ## No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are

Mr. Hartman's Pants Go By-By.
Pittsburgh—Awakened as he slept near an open window, Joe Hartman was astounded to see his trousers being slowly pulled from the bottom of the bed and vanishing into the darkness.

He reached for a gun but before locating same the trousers—containing a small sum of money—disappeared through the window and so did the thief.

"The next time," he told police, "I'll reach for my trousers instead of a gun."

He Bites Cats For Fun.
 Raleigh, N. C.—Leo Hamilton bit on a cat's tail for the fun of it, but found out it wasn't so much of a joke after all.
 Magistrate L. M. Waring held Hamilton for the superior court on a charge of cruelty to animals.

But the Second Time. Ah! Erastion, III.—Becoming curious about the kissing business, the Daily Northwestern, student publication of Northwestern University, checked up on the situation and found that most co-eds are pretty much agreed that no man, no matter how fine a chap he may be, deserves to have a kiss on his first date with a girl.

Tea Tree:

Money From Above.
Glasgow, Mo.—While councilmen waxed in warm debate of affairs of the city, honey came from above into the chamber. Investigation revealed 30 pounds in a space between the first and second floors of the city hall.

You May Have Heard This Before.
Sallisaw, Okla.—J. A. Edwards, 91, wants a divorce from Minnie Edwards, 60. "She doesn't understand me," he said. Judge W. A. Woodruff took his plea under advisement.

U. S. vs. Apples.
San Angelo, Tex.—A suit styled "United States vs. 157 Bushels of Apples" has been filed in Federal court here and the apples are in custody. The fruit was seized in Winters, Texas, on a court order. The government alleged the apples were an inter-state shipment which showed the presence of a poison presumably used as a tree spray and for that reason should be condemned.

Capitol's Difficult Trial.
Oklahoma City.—Thelma Hyder is Mrs. Raymond Elliott now as the result of remarkable perseverance. Liquor raiders broke up a pre-wedding party and took Raymond to jail. His father said the liquor was his and Raymond was released. Wedding preparations again were waxing hilarious when Raymond once more was arrested on a federal prohibition count. The young couple then sought to be married in jail. The marshal said not but the judge said yes. So they were wed.

Signals and Sermons.
Fayette, Mo.—Sermons and football signals go hand and hand in the life of Walter D. Achuff these days. In addition to being center and Central College's football team, Achuff is "circuit rider" for four Methodist churches, and after each week-end football game he makes a 200-mile trip to preach to one of his congregations.

The fatal cult of an ancient Egyptian deity was the cause of the shooting in the basement of the Calyer home at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. Calyer, who is married and the father of two children, is in a serious condition, but alive and conscious. Members of the young man's family insist that the shooting was accidental, but a young hospital internist insists that when he reached the wounded man Tuesday evening, there was a

Fashions by Eleanor Gunn

Hardware or Beads for Trimming

New York—It begins to look as though women were taking an interest in beads again. Beaded dresses, meaning really head-trimmed dresses, being once more in evidence. One of the most engaging ways of introducing beads is by way of the little jacket which may be added to almost any frock. There is also the beaded handkerchief, a successor to the spangled scarf worn close up around the throat even while dancing. And there are, of course, beaded harnesses of various kinds for those bareback performers who move around night clubs and such places. Whatever one's reaction may be to beads, one is expected to rejoice at the opportunity to wear hardware fastenings and such strange-looking metal devices as are being offered, and for which Schiaparelli is credited or blamed. Such things naturally belong on dresses that are otherwise plain, like the wool dress or the velvet one.

Copper is ever so smart. It is very pleasantly linked up with the new greens and is, of course, in perfect harmony with browns. If you are the type to wear purple, you may prefer chromium with that, although copper is not out of place. Brown and purple are sympathetic colors, especially when the brown happens to be milk or maroon or any of the flattering brown furs used so much as dress trimmings.

And speaking of brown, let me add that a brown veil, circular or otherwise, is in harmony with everything not accepting gray or black. Women seem to prefer brown veils—not only the brown-eyed women, for that is natural, but any other type as well.

While American women are most interested in stockings of the brown shades, word comes from Paris that lighter stockings are the vogue there—beige tints, in reality.

Paris Links Shoes With Coats

Paris—Match your shoes to your coat, is to be a fashionable Paris slogan for winter. Black patent leather with brown kid is worn with black coats trimmed with milk or maroon. Black with gray strappings and pipings is wanted to go with coats with gray fur collars; and even dark green or dark red shoes trimmed with brown, and navy trimmed with gray, have been reported, allegedly to go with colored coats trimmed with brown or gray furs.

No Wonder Blouses Are a Hit!

(Copyright, 1932, by Fairchild)

At top, a model done in flat crepe by rows of stitching in the otherwise with white collar suggested in the simple blouse at upper right, with blue fold on the shoulder, and the collar of white waffle pique.

The model below also makes its mark on one special feature. In this with wide rolled collar. The deep instance in a series of dots that emphasize the wide shoulder line. The white accent appears in the large single button.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Dinner dresses sometimes have cape-like sleeves that suggest squares and are embroidered in beads, copper bugles on black being effective.

The importance of a molded outline for evening and dinner gowns, often belted or with the belt merely at back, is very marked.

Capes are approved as complements to dinner and evening dresses—capas that tie on and follow the lines of the bodice, criss-crossing at the back.

ULSTER PARK

Ulster Park, Nov. 16—Ulster Grange, No. 989, of Ulster Park, will hold its regular meeting this evening in Odd Fellows Hall at 8 o'clock. The literary program will be in charge of worthy lecturer Walter Herring and will be a Thanksgiving program. The refreshments will be in charge of the service and hospitality committee, Mrs. R. Klein, chairman.

Sunday, November 20, will be Go-To-Church Sunday for all Patrons of Husbandry. Members of Ulster Grange are invited to attend service in the Reformed Dutch Church of Ulster Park on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Deemost is a member of Ulster Grange and Ulster county Farmers, and will give a worthwhile sermon of interest to all patrons, which will also be appropriate to the Thanksgiving season. The worthy master requests all members to attend this service.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Reformed Church will meet with Mrs. Harold Story on Friday afternoon, November 18, at 2:30 o'clock. This will be an important meeting, as reports will be given and officers elected for another year. All members are urged to attend, and visitors will be welcome.

St. Ursula Play at Broadway Theatre

Walker Bonds of Bonds' Theatre, Inc., today notified Mrs. Charles de la Vergne, chairman of the play committee of the Mothers' Association of St. Ursula, that the Broadway Theatre and its facilities are to be made available for the performance of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" on December 9, without charge. Mr. Bonds' generous offer to support the efforts of the committee to provide worthwhile plays for children came without solicitation, after the theatre had already been contracted for through his local representative.

In recognition of Mr. Bonds' generosity, the committee has arranged that 100 tickets shall be reserved for the children of the Sacred Heart Orphanage at West Park, in his name. Tickets have been provided for other children at the orphanage through the cooperation of Kingston Lodge, 550, E. P. O. B., Kingston Council, 174, E. of C., Dr. and Mrs. F. E. O'Connor, Dwyer Brothers and J. Gale Holcomb. The committee is now attempting to arrange for transportation of these children from West Park to this city on December 9.

Blanket of Snow in Northern New York

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—Blitz and gay ski costumes appeared today in northern New York for the first time this season as a blanket of snow covered the whole northeastern section of the state. Rain in most other sections changed to snow flurries as the temperature dropped sharply.

After a week of Indian summer Saranac Lake had a five-inch snowfall. Sportsmen driving there for the annual meeting of the New York State Fish, Game and Forest League arrived late after struggling through unplowed roads.

In Malone, near the Canadian border, the snowfall measured between five and six inches. Snow plows were used in many parts of Franklin county for the first time this season.

Rochester, Syracuse and Buffalo had snow during the night or early morning. In Albany there was a heavy rain, followed by a drop in temperature nearly to the freezing point.

Physical Education Discussed at Rotary

Coach G. Warren Kias of Kingston High School, who spoke to the members of the Kingston Rotary Club a short time ago on the 1932 football rules, was again the speaker of the local service club Wednesday noon. His subject dealt with the local problems concerning the physical advancement of the pupils in the Kingston schools.

"The great share of athletic publicity one sees in the papers has to do with intercollegiate sports," said Mr. Kias in beginning his talk. "We read of the different football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, and cross country contests between Kingston High School and other city schools, but very little is said about the sports that take place within the school itself. This intermural training is very important in the development of the boy and girl, and Kingston is doing all within its power to increase this essential branch of physical training."

Coach Kias went on to say that intermural contests in basketball, baseball and track are being enjoyed by hundreds of boys and girls in the Kingston schools, and that in time, this form of physical education would develop far more than it has at the present time. "It is the hope of the Physical Education department of the Kingston schools to give every boy and girl an opportunity of enjoying some sort of physical recreation," said the speaker.

"The question of supervised play is an important one," continued Mr. Kias. "There are very few places that boys and girls can enjoy some type of physical recreation in Kingston, and it is the duty of the schools to supply this for them. The lack of adequate places to play is a problem for everyone to consider, and we should build for the future with this thought in mind."

Prior to the talk of Coach Kias, President Joseph Morgan called the members' attention to the fact that the Boy's Work Committee under the direction of Harry Edson has made arrangements to form a Boy's Club, a club whose primary purpose is centered on the underprivileged boy. This club, which was formed once before several years ago, proved so successful at that time that the members of the Rotary Club are certain that the new club will prove as effective and worthwhile as the former club.

Guests at the meeting included President Robert Denhardt of the Catskill Rotary Club, Joseph M. Schnitzer, Catskill; F. E. Cramer, Catskill; Peter Coffin, Catskill; Clarence Rowland, Kingston; C. O. J. Rebbels, Sea Cliff, N. Y.; Jim Williams, Great Barrington, Mass.; E. S. Foster, Ithaca, and Walter H. Halligan, Newark, N. Y.

Two announcements were made by President Joseph Morgan during the short business session that followed the luncheon. On next Wednesday, the Kingston Kiwanis Club will join with the Kingston Rotary Club in a joint meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel, and Tuesday evening, November 23, the Rotary Clubs of Kingston, Hudson, and Catskill will enjoy an evening meeting at the Hotel Saulpaugh in Catskill.

At The Theatres

Kingston: "Grand Hotel." The now famous talkie version of Vicki Baum's novel returns to the Kingston screen at popular prices. The story, a cross section of life as seen in a gigantic European hotel, offers drama, romance, comedy, excitement, and sorrow, all blended together in a skillful manner. The cast of the play brings together a group of Hollywood's aristocracy of stars. It includes John Barrymore, Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Lionel Barrymore, Lewis Stone, Wallace Beery and Jean Harlow. The sets in this production are lavish in their grandeur, and no expense was spared in the making of this movie masterpiece. This picture gives the theatre goer an opportunity of comparing the ability of various stars, as they all work together in this show.

Orpheum: "Up for Murder." The story of a boy, trapped in a net of evidence, with death awaiting the verdict. Lew Ayres and Genevieve Tobin are together in this one.

Broadway: "Three on a Match." Here's an appealing entertainment, with a fine cast headed by Warren Williams, and supported by Joan Blondell, Betty Davis, and Anna Dvorak. Its plot moves along in somewhat the manner of "Grand Hotel" in that it depicts the lives of various members of the cast, and blends them skillfully into the whole of the picture. In the story are three girls, school-mates, who separate and meet again after many years. All have led different lives, and what happens when they are all together again, is novel screen drama. The show has many clever lines, some real laughs, and its share of tragedy. Something to see.

Ritz: "Man About Town." Warner Baxter and Karen Morley are together for the first time in this interesting story that gives promise of developing these two stars into a first-class film team.

Tomorrow:

Kingston: Same.
Orpheum: "Two Against the World" and "My Pal the King". Constance Bennett wears a lot of stunning gowns and looks beautiful in this modern story of the trials and troubles of a girl seeking happiness, along with Nell Hamilton and Allen Vincent. "My Pal the King" stars Tom Mix and his horse Tony in a picture that should appeal to young and old. It's a mythical kingdom plot, with the crown tottering on the head of the boy king who rules the country. Tom Mix and his cowboy troupe come along, and after plenty of excitement, the crown is saved for the youthful king against all kinds of odds.

LIGHTS & WALTER THURMELL OF NEW YORK

An actress, who lives in an old house which has been converted into apartments, was annoyed by blasting and other construction activities in the next door. Expressions about the place where she lived and finally she registered a complaint with the city authorities. One day a stranger appeared and asked whether she had made a complaint. Delighted at the prospect of some action in the matter, she said she had. He told her he was an investigator and asked to be taken around the apartment to see whether any damage had been done to the walls. He looked inside and put his head through windows and looked outside. The thing appeared to strike him as pretty serious. Finally he asked the actress to go into another room and pound on the wall. She pounded to the best of her ability. Then she went to see what the investigator thought about it. She couldn't find him. Neither could she find her jewelry or other valuables. Then she called the police. They told her she was the victim of a not uncommon racket. The thief merely had assumed that persons in that house would be annoyed by the blasting and that the chances were they had registered a complaint.

People in New York think that business is picking up a bit. Taxi drivers say that the going isn't quite so hard as usual and a lumber agent tells me that he has just received his first real orders in over a year. An advertising illustrator says that from no work at all, he suddenly has been given enough to keep him busy for a couple of months.

The natural growth on the far end of Long Island is pine and scrub oak, but the village of Amagansett has a main street absolutely arched with magnificent old elms. Everyone exclaims over them, but few know how they came to be there. The story goes that many years ago a ship, bound for New York, was wrecked. The cargo happened to be young elm trees, intended for Central park. They floated ashore. In those days, land transportation of freight was so difficult that finally the people of the little town collected some money and planted the trees. You will find some of them at East Hampton and Bridgehampton, but the street at Amagansett is the most glorious of all.

Since John J. McGraw retired as a baseball manager, he has been having a grand time. Still vice president of the New York Giants, he went almost every morning to the office and transacted various business matters, but instead of spending the afternoons directing ball players, he sometimes didn't even go to the Polo grounds. For the first time in many years, he was able to spend late summer and autumn afternoons as his fancy dictated. That it was a great relief was shown by his appearance. For the past few months, McGraw has looked steadily younger and certainly has regained his health.

Diana Thorne, animal artist, sometimes has troubles with her models. She wanted a cat to pose for some illustrations. She saw just the feline in a butcher shop on Sixth avenue. The butcher said she could borrow it, if she could catch it. Miss Thorne got a gunny sack and started in. The cat retreated to a dark cellar and the hunt was on. With no more trouble than she might have had in trapping a tiger, Miss Thorne captured the cat. It took her two days to tame it. She did such a good job that it took her two weeks to get rid of it.

Excessive Taxes Cuts

Down Autos in Finland
Helsingfors.—Finnish automobile organizations have addressed a communication to the Finnish government pointing out that the number of people using automobiles in Finland has decreased over 30 per cent in one year. They state the cause of this is excessive taxation, and demand that the customs duties on automobiles be reduced as well as other levies such as that on gasoline.

Tough Tunes
The term "tough" in music was used as early as 1880, if not earlier. In 1878 Julius Marshall in his "Annals of Tunes," page 124, has the following: "Tough (in 1880) then told his readers that (the scoring is) 'at two (a dose)' as it is called when the game is reduced or 'at' to two strokes to be gained, in order to win it. The term 'a dose' is still preserved in the French form, a dose, corrupted into the English device."

Meet The New President

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last of six articles on President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, revealing the incidents in his every-day life, his traits of character, philosophy, and interests.)

By WALTER T. BROWN,
(Associated Press Staff Writer Who Accompanied Roosevelt on His Campaign.)

ALBANY, N. Y. (P.)—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt's friendliness and conversational facility often present a problem to Governor T. G. Cram, James Mahoney and others of his secretarial staff.

Frequently, the secretaries find themselves with an enter office of visitors on their hands and Mr. Roosevelt, talking 15 minutes with an individual, is called away.

The President-elect is an eager seeker of information and, if the casual visitor is well acquainted with some one subject that has intrigued Mr. Roosevelt's fancy but which he has been unable to pursue, that visitor likely will remain much longer than the secretaries intend.

There is no formality about a visit with Mr. Roosevelt. If his hours at the state capitol are crowded, he likely will invite the caller to have dinner at the mansion, or drop in after dinner or see him at breakfast.

Once or twice a week, the Executive Mansion household attends the movies in an improvised theatre on an upper floor of the old house.

Mr. Roosevelt and his guests may have important matters to discuss; there may be appeals to save men from the electric chair to be decided before the next day; or there may be impending important conferences with party leaders or legislators—but all these are pushed aside for the season at the movies.

The Roosevelts and their guests occupy the front seats in the theatre, and the servants and other attendants sit behind them.

The show over, Mr. Roosevelt goes back to his tasks, and all other subjects are sidetracked for the business at hand.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, President-elect of the United States, smiles his friendly smile. A visit with him is strictly informal.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from sore throat, chest pain, asthma, cough, colds, and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Ben-Gay on the throat and chest. It doesn't blister or burn. It is in fact it stuns down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for they are ineffective. Rub Ben-Gay on the throat or chest and a chest cold may not be good for you.

Ben-Gay is a medicine. Ask your druggist for Ben-Gay. Ben-Gay is made of Ben-Gay (in English). There are many medicines named Ben-Gay, but only Ben-Gay is made of Ben-Gay. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Rub Ben-Gay on the throat or chest and you will get real results.

Cloud Visibility

The distance at which clouds are visible to the naked eye varies greatly with one's position and the kind of clouds. If one is in an open flat country and the clouds are of the broad stratus or layer type, he may not see them more than 30 to 40 miles away, and even not half as far if the air tends to be misty or hazy. On the other hand, when the air is quite clear a well developed cumulo-stratus, or thunderstorm, cloud may, under favorable circumstances, be seen when more than 100 miles away.

Said by John Wesley
John Wesley was the originator of "Cleansing to next to godliness."

Parent-Teacher Associations

The Federated Council of Parents and Teachers Association held its November meeting at the high school on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Mahar, principal of No. 5, spoke on the Literacy Test and of Adult Education in Kingston. In the Night School or Adult Education Classes, there are classes for English, Commercial Studies, Home Making, Carpentry and French. Mr. Mahar also read a paper by Dr. John Flinley and discussed reasons for less foreigners in this country and adult school at the present time. In Kingston, Mr. Mahar stated that there are 2,615 people born outside of the United States, four representing 27 countries. The percentage of illiterates in Kingston in 1920 was 2 per cent of the population, while in 1928, it was reduced to 1 per cent, thus showing the good work of the adult education classes.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Mahar for his splendid talk. The regular business meeting followed, after which Mrs. Clarke, who is a Study Group leader, was introduced, and asked to explain the method used in Study Groups.

A motion was carried to form a Study Group at the next Federated meeting, the council to hold the regular business meeting, starting at 3:15 p. m., followed by the Study Group classes.

Anyone interested in joining or attending these classes is asked to be present at the next meeting which will be Wednesday, December 21, at 3:15 p. m.

to the fact that defendants entered pleas of guilty there was nothing for the jurors to do. They were excused until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Judge Traver stated that since court opened Monday afternoon the first 19 cases on the calendar had been disposed of with the exception of No. 14, The People vs. Richard Henson, an arson, second degree charge. When Henson was arraigned after indictment he stated he had counsel. Since that time his counsel decided not to appear and A. J. Cook was called into the case. Mr. Cook stated that he had been called in only a few hours previous and was not familiar with the case. He asked for some time to prepare his case. His client he said would stand trial. The matter was held in abeyance. Henson has been in jail since last March. Mr. Murray said he desired to go to trial as no man should be kept in jail that length of time. If innocent, Judge Traver agreed and the case will be disposed of as soon as possible.

"Black Magic" Practice

Popular in Old France

Charlatanism, sorcery and black magic concentrated in the terrible holocaust epitomized by the Marquis de Sade, carried on right into the bloody hours of the French revolution. A French sorceress, Catherine Monvoisin, known as "La Voisin," was much patronized by the great ladies of de Montepan's time, with somewhat the same object as de Montepan, love, riches, avarice, hatred. La Voisin, clever woman that she was, soon got wealthy with her philters and witchcraft.

Her fame, of course, drew de Montepan, who along with a few minor episodes such as black mass celebrations, got embroiled in the famous "affaire des poisons," in which Montepan plotted with La Voisin to poison Louis XIV. The plot caused such a scandal that Louis closed the court. La Voisin was executed early in the case and de Montepan got off through influence. Later, strangely enough, after she went into retirement, she became so good as to come near sainthood.

Madame de Montepan was quite a generous patroness of letters and she set the styles for clothes as well as decoration. She was born in 1641, died 1707.

Balanced at Court Decision

The saying "John Marshall has made his decision; now let him enforce it" was ascribed to President Andrew Jackson and its occasion was a decision of the Supreme court in one of the cases involving the Cherokee Indian nation and the state of Georgia. The Supreme court had found in favor of the Indians, but, as the interests of the United States, as well as the state of Georgia, were believed by Jackson to be superior, the Indians were gradually displaced from their lands in spite of the treaty subsisting.

"Little Stories for Bedtime" by Thornton W. Burgess

PETER RABBIT'S FEELINGS ARE HURT

Learn a lesson from the book:

THIS is what little Striped Chipmunk had shouted at Peter Rabbit when Peter tried to get him to come and play with him. Peter just grinned as he watched Striped Chipmunk scamper about on the edge of the Green Forest and presently start for home with his pockets full of nuts.

It seemed to Peter that it was no time at all before Striped Chipmunk was back after more nuts. It was very clear that he had no time for play; he was too busy.

Peter watched him a while, and then growing tired of seeing Striped Chipmunk work so hard he went on. Presently he spied Chatterer the Red Squirrel in a chestnut tree. "Come play with me!" cried Peter. "It's a splendid day for a frolic."

"You mean it's a splendid day to work," shouted Chatterer. "I can't play with you!"

"I've nothing to do," mumbled Peter, and without another word he turned and started for home. He would have liked to stay and watch Jerry, but Jerry had called him "loafer," just as had Striped Chipmunk and Chatterer and Happy Jack, and somehow he began to feel that these busy workers looked down on him and the feeling wasn't a comfortable one. As he happened along toward the dear Old Briar Patch where he could sit and doze and dream to his heart's content with no one to call him unpleasant names, he met Danny Meadow Mouse hurrying as if he had no time to lose.

"What's your rush?" demanded Peter.

"I'm making the most of this fine weather to fill my storehouse with seeds for the winter," replied Danny Meadow Mouse. "I can't afford to be a loafer like you, Peter."

This was too much. Even little Danny Meadow Mouse called him a loafer. Perhaps none of them really meant anything, but just the same Peter's feelings were hurt. All the brightness of the beautiful fall day was gone for Peter. When Striped Chipmunk called him a loafer he hadn't minded, but when one after another his other friends had called him the same thing it had hurt. The more he thought of it the more it hurt. Could it be that they looked down on him because he never worked? It certainly looked that way. He reached the dear Old Briar Patch and crept in to his favorite resting place without letting Mrs. Peter know that he had returned. He wanted to be alone to think.

(By Thornton W. Burgess.)—WHD Service.

Let's Play Hide-and-Seek! Cried Peter.

afford to be a loafer like you." With this Chatterer stuffed his mouth full of nuts and whisked out of sight to hide them in his secret storehouse.

Once more Peter grinned and went his way until he met Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel. "Let's play hide-and-seek!" cried Peter.

"Some other day," replied Happy Jack, hunting among the fallen leaves for nuts. "I can't afford to be a loafer like you such fine weather as this."

This time Peter didn't grin. It was the third time he had been called a loafer. At first he hadn't minded, but now he was beginning to feel a wee bit hurt. You know a loafer is one who sits around and does nothing. He never works. Peter could see no reason why he should work. He would much rather play or take his ease. He couldn't understand why others should work as they were doing, but that was their affair, not his. If they got pleasure from work all well and good but they needn't call him a loafer. He would leave them to their labor and go down to the Sniffling Pool.

So he left the Green Forest and started across the Green Meadows hip-hip-hooray as fast as he could go to the Sniffling Pool. By the time he got there he had quite forgotten that he had been a little hurt in his feelings. The instant he poked his head over the bank he saw Jerry Muskrat. Jerry was hard at work on the roof of his house. He saw Peter as soon as Peter saw him.

"Hello, loafer!" shouted Jerry. "Did you ever know finer weather for work? Why don't you get busy and do something?"

"I've nothing to do," mumbled Peter, and without another word he turned and started for home. He would have liked to stay and watch Jerry, but Jerry had called him "loafer," just as had Striped Chipmunk and Chatterer and Happy Jack, and somehow he began to feel that these busy workers looked down on him and the feeling wasn't a comfortable one. ## Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Stocks shuffled back and forth today but had a rather heavy undertone. Trading was light, most buying and selling apparently originating with Wall Street professionals.

Shares enjoying pool sponsorship showed considerable resistance, and a few issues made net gains, but the majority trended lower. By afternoon losses of 1 to 2 points had been recorded in American Tobacco, Eastman, Johns-Manville, New York Central, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Union Pacific, Liggett & Myers B. and Lackawanna, U. S. Steel, Anaconda, Corn Products, Consolidated Gas and National Biscuit gave up substantial fractions.

Realizing the selling ripples with fair success were American Can, American Smelting, Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, General Electric, General Motors and Standard of New Jersey which restricted their declines to small fractions. Pacific Gas, Procter & Gamble, Public Service of New Jersey, Vanadium, Penick & Ford, and Safeway Stores were up.

Advices from the steel trade indicate that the pace of production is slowing down somewhat, which is in line with seasonal experience. Copper prices receded a shade further for export metal, sales being reported at 5.55 to 5.70 cents a pound today against 5.65 to 5.75 a few days ago. This recession erased about half of the recent price rally.

Dividend actions continued to attract attention. Penick and Ford, an important corn products manufacturer, declared an extra dividend of $1 a share in addition to the 25 cent regular quarterly payment. One year ago, the same company declared a 50 cent extra. National Lead voted a regular payment on its common.

Quotations given by Parker, McElroy & Co., members, N. Y. Stock Exchange, 130 Broadway, New York City; branch office, Sturtevant Hotel.

Alumni Organizes Team; Works Out

Wednesday night in the Kingston High School gym approximately 20 former high school varsity football players reported for the first practice of the Alumni team that is scheduled to play Coach Kins' varsity Saturday afternoon on the Kingston Fair Grounds.

Bill O'Reilly, coach of the Kingston Yellow Jackets, is directing the team. He gave the boys a number of plays, diagramming them on the blackboard and then gave a careful explanation of them. Bill selected a squad and ran it through the signals. The men accepted the work with enthusiasm.

Among the some 20 players were the line backfield men in Johnny Quent, "Flip" Jones, Warren Ingalls, Bill Merrill, Hank Brigham, Piro, Don Meagher and Macchold. In the line there was Wally Buley, Bill Wonderly, Ken Garrison, George Misen, Holley Burdane, Bill Martin, Dan Van Wageningen and Tom Parker.

The Alumni has but two more days in which to polish up its plays and get clicking. Coach O'Reilly is relying on what the boys have been taught to carry the work through. He has not time to teach blocking and tackling. He is relying on the boys to recall their methods as they were drilled when they played high school football.

Coach O'Reilly is of the opinion that the Alumni has the stuff that will carry them through, providing that the plays are carried out with some degree of efficiency. The fact that the boys have not played together in some time—in some cases the boys never met before or played together—will handicap the Alumni in a big way. The boys will work out alone tonight for Bill O'Reilly will be busy putting the Yellow Jackets through a drill. Friday night, however, the team will receive the finishing touches for the game Saturday.

R. P. I. Players To Present Comedy Here

Last week the R. P. I. players gave their presentation of the three-act comedy, "The Young Idea" by Noel Coward in Troy, which will be staged Friday night in the high school auditorium, beginning at 8:30. The play is being sponsored by the Kingston High School Athletic Association.

The Troy newspapers commented favorably on the performances given on Friday and Saturday night in that city. The first night the theatre was crowded to its capacity and the second night hundreds were turned away.

In other places where the comedy has already been staged by the college dramatic club, it was thought by those who saw it, one of the best non-professional plays they ever had the pleasure to see.

The local association is looking forward to one of the largest crowds that a play has drawn to the auditorium in some time. No doubt "The Young Idea" will be placed in the list of the fine plays given on the stage of the local school.

PUNTS and PASSES

(By The Associated Press.)

Cambridge, Mass.—(AP)—The Harvard football team has proved entirely too tough for one of Harvard's old football customs, that of having the tackling dummy before the last game. Instead of being confined to the dummies, the players went into storage yesterday. Harvard would be extravagant with attendance falling off the way it has, Athletic Association officials explained.

Lafayette, Ind.—The Purdue football players aren't the only ones who are working hard in preparation for the Indian game Saturday. A shovel squad started in yesterday to remove seven inches of snow from the tarpaulin that covers the field.

South Bend, Ind.—The Army and Navy games are just about enough to make the difference between financial success and failure in Notre Dame's gridiron season. The "Irish" are expecting a crowd of 50,000 for Saturday's game with Navy at Cleveland and as many more at the Army game in New York.

Annapolis, Md.—Since Navy, under Rip Miller's coaching uses the Notre Dame system and Notre Dame, of course, follows it, the midshipmen have been able to save a lot of time in their preparation for Saturday's battle with the Irish. While one part of the squad has worked out on the defense, another section has lined up against it in a defensive drill.

Providence, R. I.—Brown's Varsity has decided there is a lot of work ahead in preparing its defense for the Colgate game Thanksgiving Day. In the first scrimmage yesterday the scrubs, using Colgate lateral pass plays, scored twice on the regulars.

Philadelphia—George Munger of Pennsylvania ought to be at home in any backfield position before the season is over. After working at fullback and at the halves through most of the campaign, Munger was given a trial as quarterback yesterday.

New Haven, Conn.—The fact that Yale's squad is finally free from injuries has created two doubtful spots in the Elks' starting lineup against Harvard. Coach Mal Stevens hasn't decided whether to start Crowley or Callan at right half and Johnson or Howland at center. Crowley and Johnson have been listed among the injured.

SPORT SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould

(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

In the Rockne system, so-called, on the down-grade along with the best of football exhibited by the headquarters forces of Notre Dame.

Perhaps so, if you leap quickly to conclusions after noting that Georgetown has discarded the Rockne style of play, that Yale probably will do the same thing after this season, and that Frank Carideo, Rock's last All-American quarterback, has performed no miracles at Missouri.

Probably not, if you notice on the other hand what fine work has been done this year at Purdue by Noble Kizer, at Auburn by Chet Wynne and his Notre Dame staff, and by Slip Madigan, the sage of St. Mary's who may in time take over the mantle of Rockne at South Bend, if he yields to increasing pressure.

Didn't Look the Same

The truth is that the Rockne "system" really was a one-man proposition. It was distinctly individualistic, but the belief it could be transplanted grew from the fact so many pupils of Rock entered the coaching highways and byways. Somehow it seldom looked the same as it did at Notre Dame. Madigan, Chuck Collins, Harry Mehre, Adam Walsh, Harry Stuhldreher and others made their own interpretations.

The thing that made the "system" successful at South Bend, under Rockne, was his basic method of teaching, rather than the structural character of play. Rockne could make a Zuppke, a Stagg or a Doble creation look better than the original. Rock never laid claim to much originality in plays. He contended there was nothing much new, anyway, and that the simplest form of attack was the best and most effective, given the correct performance in the fundamentals of blocking and tackling.

In short, Rockne based his success on drill and execution, rather than originality; on speed, rather than deception; on fitness, in preference to brawn. He popularized lightweight guards, specialized in stalwart ends (making them offensive key men) and adopted silk pants. Aside from the backfield shift, which was not of course, a Notre Dame or Rockne creation, there was little in the "system" to transplant which did not require Rock's touch or method, in order to look like the original.

His Pupils Alert

If the "system," nevertheless, is well established about the country, it is due mainly to the fact that Rockne helped turn out an alert, resourceful type of young football player whose natural talents and inclination after an apprenticeship at South Bend, led him to seek a coaching career.

Their success has not rested upon duplication of a set of maneuvers and formation but in applying the basic principles they learned, under Rockne, to the situations and material at hand.

Some of the Rockne products, like "Sleepy Jim" Crowley, caught his humorous spirit; others, like Stuhldreher, his painstaking attention to detail and resourcefulness; still others, such as Adam Walsh, his dynamic forcefulness. Even if some of the alarmists at South Bend are blowing the whistle, there seems no real reason for worry about the football future of Notre Dame.

Yellow Jackets Practice Tonight; Busses for Fans

Desirous of avenging last Sunday's 2-0 shutout they received at the hands of the Port Jervis police, the Kingston Yellow Jackets will hold a strenuous practice at the North Manor avenue drill field tonight at 7:30 in preparation for their return match with the Coppers at Port Jervis Sunday afternoon. Coach William O'Reilly requests every player to attend.

Manager Lou Kantrowitz has arranged to have busses run to Port Jervis for the convenience of fans wishing to see the game. Reservations must be made, however, by Saturday night and the fare paid in advance. This can be done by communicating with the D. Kantrowitz store, North Front street, from which place the busses will leave Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Starting time of the game is 2:15 o'clock.

Old Rivalries to Be Renewed Saturday

New York, Nov. 17 (AP).—Two of the oldest and longest rivalries in eastern football are to be renewed this week in the 51st Yale-Harvard game and the 56th Lafayette-Lehigh struggle.

Only one series, that between Yale and Princeton, is older than the Yale-Harvard rivalry and none has produced as many games as Lafayette and Lehigh. And, as is always the case, an interesting game is bound to take place when these old enemies meet whether their records are good or bad or equal or unequal.

The Elks and the Crimson clashed first in 1875, but they didn't settle down to the serious business of unbroken relations until 1897. Lafayette and Lehigh, located only 12 miles apart down in the Lehigh Valley, began playing football in 1884 and kept it up at a two games a year clip for nearly 20 years and since they have met annually without interruption.

Neither Yale nor Harvard has developed a very impressive record this season. The Elks started badly but have shown very evident improvement in their last couple of games. Harvard, after making an impressive beginning, failed to fulfill their early promise, losing to Army and Brown in their two hardest games.

One-Foot Forest Found

What is believed to be the most remarkable forest in the world has been found on the west coast of Africa. Although the trunks of the trees are as much as four feet in diameter, they attain the height of only one foot. No tree bears more than two leaves, which attain a length of six feet and breadth of two feet. The forest covers a tableland six miles in width.
